IL SEGRETARIO GENERALE
Fabio Pagliara

Dear General Secretary,

Re: WORLD ATHLETICS DAY 2014

The World Athletics Day (WAD), the IAAF's traditional youth festival, will celebrate its 19th edition this year.

Once again, the World Athletics Day offers the opportunity to promote Athletics with the Youths' participation through the clubs and the schools.

The IAAF hopes that the organisation of the WAD can be implemented in the key population centres of each Member Federation during the month of May. We strongly encourage all Member Federations to take part in the World Athletics Day to promote our sport's bright future.

We are pleased to inform you that, starting in 2014, WAD will be part of a new IAAF Social Responsibility project which is called "Athletics for a Better World" or ATBW. Being a global sport means accepting global responsibility: to use the power and reach of athletics to make a positive difference in the world. ATBW will harness the extraordinary commitment and energy of the worldwide athletics family to inspire lasting change.

ATBW will support projects in areas ranging from Health, Peace and Social Inclusion as well as the Environment. It will show the world what we in the athletics family already know: that athletics is much more than a sport. For this reason, we can announce that the "World Athletics Day", "Kids Athletics", the "Green Project", as well as new initiatives, will now contribute to achieve the ATBW goals. As in the past, we strongly encourage, in addition to the WAD, implementation of the existing IAAF's Kids' Athletics programme as well as other social responsibility initiatives in order to help us to build a better world.

Should you require further information or assistance, do not hesitate to contact Stephanie Marling who is coordinating this project at the following email address: stepmarling@iaaf.org.

We wish you a successful World Athletics Day and look forward to receiving the reports and results by the deadlines indicated on the Schedule below.

Kindest regards,

Esser Gabriel
General Secretary

International Association of Athletics Federations
